Talk on Family Mediation: The Dynamics and Management

家事調解的管理與互動講座

Content

Family Mediation is unlike other mediation sessions involving commercial disputes. The divorce process is full of traumas and both parties are often charged with complicated emotions. It is also about the welfare of the children who are not in the mediation rooms. It requires more skills and personal acumen to excel as a family mediator, to rebuild trust and an minimal level of cooperation through the process, to earn back the autonomy, to make the session less rugged and to enable the agreement more enforceable. The Talk aims to explore the dynamics of the family mediation session from first contact to preparing both parties for the session, from the joint session to caucus, from assessment of stress level & parenting ability etc. to identification of available options.
