Mediation Workshop:

Psychology of Conflict and Mediating Minor Disputes

Speakers:

Mr. Lung Gwun Ting, Bryan is a solicitor, psychological counselor and currently a full-time general and family mediator. He has been conducting litigation cases for more than 10 years and provided counseling services to youth and couples for more than 500 hours. He was accredited as a general and family mediator under HKIAC and the Law Society of Hong Kong in 2009 and became an accredited family mediation supervisor and the assessor of Stage 2 accreditation of general mediator of HKMAAL in 2011 and 2015 respectively.

Bryan conducted more than 320 mediation cases so far. Half of them are family mediation cases and half of them are general mediation cases. He conducted live supervision of family mediation for more than 40 family mediation trainees with various backgrounds, including barristers, solicitors, counselors, social workers and other professionals. He has also been invited to deliver talks and provide training and coaching in various mediation courses and talks.

Ms. Cecilia Tam is a solicitor and an accredited mediator. She has been practising as an in-house lawyer for a private group of companies for a decade. Before moving in-house, she practised in law firms on intellectual property, corporate and commercial matters and civil litigation. She has also worked in a law firm in Melbourne, Australia and advised clients on commercial transactions, purchase of land and litigation matters.

Cecilia is an accredited general mediator of Hong Kong Mediation Accreditation Association Limited (HKMAAL) and Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC), and has a keen interest in promoting mediation as a preferred way for disputes resolution. She has experiences in commercial, contractual and debt disputes mediation, and actively participates in numerous mediation promotional activities. She is a Consultant of the Joint Mediation Helpline Office, and occasionally assists in coaching mediation trainings and writes newspaper articles on mediation related topics.
