

Mr Justice Henry Carr – Biography

Mr Justice Carr studied jurisprudence at Hertford College Oxford and obtained an LLM from the University of British Columbia for a thesis on legal protection of computer programs.

He was called to the bar in 1982 and took silk in 1998. He specialised in all aspects of intellectual property law. He was appointed as a Deputy High Court Judge in 2007 and was chairman of the Intellectual Property Bar Association from 2012 until his appointment to the High Court Bench, Chancery Division, in October 2015.

Mr Justice Carr is one of the three High Court judges assigned to the Patents Court in the United Kingdom. This means that he hears the most complex patent cases, as well as trade mark, design and copyright cases.
