

Psychological Disorders Commonly Encountered in Law Courts and in Mediation Rooms

by

Mr. Ip Ho Kin, Honic,
Barrister-at-Law, Arbitrator,
Accredited General and Family Mediator,
Professional Victim-Offender Mediator

As a practising Barrister, Mr. IP maintains a mixed practice of civil law and criminal law. For civil practice, Mr. IP's scope of practice includes: contract law, tort law, probate and will, family law, property law, construction law, company law, international trade law and arbitration law. For criminal practice, Mr. IP accepts briefs both as a prosecuting counsel and a defence counsel.

As a practising Arbitrator, Mr. IP is particularly experienced in international arbitration and is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. Even before practising law, Mr. IP has participated in many institutional arbitration proceedings, including those of CIETAC, GAFTA, FOSFA, and LME arbitrations.

As a practising Mediator, Mr. IP is accredited by the HKMAAL both as a General Mediator and a Family Mediator. He is on the panel of accredited general and family mediator administered by the MCO under the judiciary and frequently receives appointment therefrom. Mr. IP is also a professional Victim-Offender Mediator recognized by the Griffith University of Australia and the Hong Kong Methodist Church. He also serves as a volunteer accredited family mediator at the Hong Kong Family Welfare Society and the Hong Kong Catholic Marriage Advisory Council respectively.

In relation to psychotherapy, Mr. IP has obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree in Applied Psychology and a Master of Social Science degree in Behavioral Health from which he has received training in cognitive behavioral therapy, drama therapy, play therapy, hypnotic therapy, and positive psychology. He is a Graduate Member of the British Psychological Society. Mr. IP has also completed the basic and intermediate training in family therapy and is a Member of the Asian Academy of Family Therapy. He is pursuing advanced training in family therapy with a view to practice as a family therapist in the near future.

Mr. IP is also enthusiastic in tertiary education. Since 2008, he has accepted part-time teaching appointments from both local and overseas universities, including: the Faculty of Law of the University of Hong Kong, the School of Law and the Department of Chinese, Translation & Linguistics of the City University of Hong Kong, the Faculty of Education at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, the Department of Real Estate and Building at the Hong Kong Polytechnic University, and the School of Design, Property and Project Management of the RMIT University in Australia.
