

Notice for the Membership Renewal Arrangement

Hong Kong Mediation Centre (“HKMC”) strives to provide exclusive benefits to our members, and we are committed to promoting mediation in the local and international arena, exploring practice opportunities and strengthening the professionalism and quality of our Members. With your support and devotion, HKMC has been the most trustworthy and world recognized professional mediation organization in Hong Kong.

In order to ensure the continuous enjoyment of the exclusive member benefits, we have been inviting members to get familiar with the membership renewal procedures and the CPD policy of HKMC. Under the current HKMC Panel Membership Renewal procedures, members are required to attain the CPD requirements, submitted the annual fee, the duly filled renewal application together with the CPD record form to HKMC on or before the end of the calendar year.

For individual member who is not able to renew his/her membership by the end of the calendar year, his/her membership will automatically be expired. Individual with the expired membership intended to reinstate their HKMC Membership shall apply to the Council and specifically state the type of membership i.e. Ordinary Mediator Member or Voting Mediator Member. In accordance with the Articles of Association (AA), all Ordinary Mediator Members and Voting Mediator Members will have the same benefits but only Voting Mediator Members are eligible to vote and attend General Meetings. If you would like to know more details, please refer to the AA on our website. Upon receiving the application, the Council will consider their respective application on individual merit.

Members are encouraged to take part in CPD programmes and to exceed the minimum requirements. Announcement on CPD programs will be made from time to time via e-mail, hence Panel Members should update their latest personal particulars including email addresses to ensure prompt receipt of announcements on CPD programmes.
